TO HELP YOUNG GIRLS

A Mother Wants Her Letter Published.

Eaton, Ill.—"I wish you would publish this letter for the benefit of young girls. My daughter suffered greatly from female trouble with cramps, and headache, and backache most of the time. She never felt like working and it seemed as though she was sick all the time. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped her in every way, in fact it has really cured her, for she no longer has periodic pains, and no more headaches or backache, and I want all young girls who suffer as she did to know about it."

—MRS. ALMA MILLS, Eaton, Ill.

Another Girl's Experience.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."

—MRS. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St., New Castle, Ind.

Girls who are troubled as these young women were, should immediately begin restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WATERBURY

Interesting Patriotic Demonstration Was Held Saturday.

A threatening day in the morning developed better toward noon and aside from the roads, the weather favored the celebration of the Waterbury Patriotic association last Saturday afternoon. Thanks to Dr. H. H. Fullerton and his able assistants, Waterbury had probably the greatest celebration known by people of to-day, estimates as high as 5,000 of the crowd being heard, from 3,000 to 4,000 probably being a safe statement. Because of the inclement weather, decorations were delayed until that forenoon, but the business places and houses were in gala attire, being artistic and appropriate in their colors of red, white and blue. The line of march was as planned and the crowd was finely handled by the marshal, V. L. Perkins, assisted by F. E. Evans, F. L. Eaton and his able assistants. The American flag was carried by S. C. Brown, with soldier escort. His costume and hat were made of cloth with flags of all nations and where a bit of the German flag appeared it was covered with red, white and blue. The Montpelier Military band followed and then came Mr. Wilkins as Uncle Sam, on horseback. Several cars were filled with the veterans, who were followed by the village and town officers, prominent men and the speakers. Two cars carried the daughters of the American Revolution with the silk flag and banner. The Red Cross showed the numbers of the local society, a large number attending in costume in autos and upon a float which showed the surgical dressing table and articles for work. The Waterbury fire department showed, "We Protect the Home." The Stowe Citizens' band was followed by the different societies, each exemplifying some part of the work. The boy scout troops carried the big flag, which was afterward flung to the breeze, while the campfire girls were resplendent in costume. The young grades of the school wore red caps, blue caps and white caps and when ready for singing formed a living flag. The float song was also a beautiful scene as well as nicely rendered. Much credit to the music from the schools is due their instructor, Miss Lena Wallace. The British tank caused much interest, while large numbers of automobiles were at the close of the procession. Autos and teams were decorated in every conceivable manner, while one little cart full of potatoes had this banner, "We Won't Let Uncle Sam Starve." There were over 40 banners in the line of march, with such mottoes as, "We Fight for Liberty and Right," "If America Don't Suit You, Just Get Out," "England Asks: 'When Will You Be Ready for Business?'" "America Answers: 'We Can Start at Once, and They Did.'" "Waterbury Was Always on the Map," "What's the Matter with Wilson? He's All Right," while the Liberty bells received their share of the advertising. The Waterbury Citizens' band and the Scottish clan pipers of Barre did their part of the entertaining, numbers being played by the different bands as announced. The uniqueness of the Scottish pipers made their work doubly welcome. The speeches by Pres. Benton and Gov. Graham were strong both in expression and thought. The fact that it takes five persons to keep one man in the field shows the necessity of work for all. Everyone was urged to stand by their colors to the bitter end, to help the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. in their noble work. Gov. Graham called attention to the recruiting station on the ground and urged those present to aid in seeing that the National Guard was filled before July 1. That many heard the plea was evidenced by the following names given out Sunday morning by Lieut. Sheldon of those who had volunteered for enlistment in the 1st Vermont infantry: Herman Blanchard, Nathan Gabree, Theodore Desport, Clifford F. Hunter, Earl Ravellin, George Elrick, H. L. Conoley, Fred Trank, Herbert Tronza, Ira E. Pike, Ernest Peor, Edward O'Brien, Harold Harvey, Edgar Martin, William Casey. The men will be given a preliminary physical test by Lieut. Sheldon and Sergt. Hoyt. Those who pass will be sent to regimental headquarters at Fort Ethan Allen to pass the final examinations and receive their training in the recruit camp at that place. The men will be among the first to serve their nation in the world war. Their regiment will be the only organization to carry the colors of Vermont into the trenches and they are among the last of those who have the privilege of volunteering their services.

Among those who were present from out of town Saturday were L. H. Lewis of the News and Citizen of Hyde Park, Mrs. Edward C. Smith, Mrs. Edward Royce of St. Albans, Charles Wells and Lucine Wells of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wilcox of Montpelier, Mrs. G. B. Walton, regent of Marquis de Lafayette chapter, D. A. R., Montpelier, who was a guest of Mrs. George Morse, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jones, George Wallis, Stanley Buzzell of Waitsfield, the latter assisting the Waterbury Citizens' band, Mr. and Mrs. George Grandfield of Fayston, Mr. and Mrs. George Runney and family of Middlesex.

"Can you keep anything on your stomach?" the ship's doctor asked.

"No, sir," he returned feebly, "nothing but my hand."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Cost of Milk Production in New England.

The Boston Chamber of Commerce recently appropriated money to be used in the survey among the farmers of the New England states to determine their estimate of the cost of producing milk under the past year's conditions. The Chamber of Commerce has co-operated with the state agricultural colleges to the extent of employing men from the colleges to go out and make these surveys. The plan has been as follows: Each county agent in the state has recommended the names of about 25 farmers in the county who are able to furnish such records as were necessary to determine the cost of milk production on their individual farms. These men were notified beforehand of the visit of the men who were to take the survey. Mr. Hitchcock, Mr. Churchill and Mr. Root, seniors in the agricultural college at Burlington, have been in this county this week taking surveys of this nature in the towns of Barre, Berlin and Waterbury. It is expected that the results of this survey will be in shape for publication by the last of June and doubtless will have a tremendous bearing on the outcome of the proposed question of the raise in the price of milk July 1.

Grasshoppers.

Grasshoppers have begun to hatch in Windsor county and it is likely that other infestations will occur in other counties. We cannot afford to let this pest get fairly started. The grasshoppers must be killed while they are young and this can be done cheaply and easily by means of poison bait. Our legislature has appropriated money for the purpose of carrying on demonstrations of how this can be done and you are requested to report at once to the county agent's office any outbreak of the grasshopper in any part of the county in order that they may be looked after at once before they get fairly started.

Blue Vitriol.

As a result of the article published in last week's issue some over 3,000 pounds of blue vitriol have been contracted for at a very reasonable price by farmers of the county. The farmers who are doing this are foresighted and I would urge others to follow their example, ordering their spray material at once in order to avoid the excessive prices which will doubtless be in effect shortly.

Annual Meeting.

The report of the annual meeting is published elsewhere in this paper and the county agent hopes that the next year's work of the association will prove of even more value than the past to the farmers of the county.

County Agent.

Antidotes for Bodily Poisons

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

The victims of auto-intoxication are many thousands every day. By reason of the toxins, or poisons bred in the intestines, these poisonous bacteria are sent all through the blood channels, and the victim feels tired, sleepy and headachy, or the brain doesn't work as usual. The best treatment for this is to drink hot water before breakfast—plenty of water all day and procure a simple laxative, made of May-apple, leaves of aloë, etc., with no calomel and entirely vegetable, which can be obtained at any drug store, known as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Equally important is it to cleanse kidneys and bladder, and drinking plentifully of pure water will cleanse them to a certain extent. Then obtain at the drug store a little Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y. Anuric (double strength) should be taken before meals. It is many times more potent than lithia in throwing off the poisonous accumulations of uric acid.

Through failure of kidneys to act, through congestion, inflammation, any persons' condition is ripe for disease to fasten its hold upon the system.

Anuric has been tested for the past few years for kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles, rheumatism, gout, and such ailments as follow, and so many cases both acute and stubborn have yielded to this wonderful remedy that I do not hesitate to recommend it.—Adv.

National Guard for France.

According to advices from Washington all National Guard regiments well equipped and trained will soon see service in France. George Creed, chairman of the federal committee on public information, or, in other words, the head press censor, is credited with giving out the statement that, while National Guardsmen will be sent to France before snow flies, it is not true the war department has decided, to send 120,000 of them to French soil.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Transcript says that no decision has been reached as yet as to which organizations will be selected for the initial service abroad, but it may be taken for granted those Massachusetts regiments that saw service on the Mexican border last year will be selected, together with the New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and other commands.

If excellency of service on the Mexican border counts, in all human probability Vermont's regiment will also be included. The Green mountain troops were not only among the first to respond, but they also performed service that put them in the first rank of the forces on the border as regards soldierly bearing, morale and efficiency.

We must not expect to be able to tell the public when the Vermont troops leave. On the contrary, every Vermont newspaper man knows this information will be guarded with the closest secrecy. Indeed, when the time comes, friends of the troops will do well not to discuss the matter, for the matter will surely extend through neighbors to others beyond our borders and so reach forces that would eagerly imperil their passage. It is possible that the first published statement regarding the movements of the National Guard regiments sent abroad will be the announcement of their arrival on the soil of France. When Green mountain boys are in force along the western battle front in Europe, we also shall begin to realize this country is actually in this great world-war in earnest.—Burlington Free Press.

A Wise Precaution.

The day before she was to be married an old negro servant came to her mistress and entrusted her savings to her keeping.

"Why should I keep your money for you? I thought you were going to be married!" said the mistress.

"So I is, Missus, but do you 'spose I'd keep all dis yer money in de house wid dat strange nigger?"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Why She Was Good.

Ethel used to play a good deal in Sunday school, but one day she had been so good that the teacher said in praise:

"Ethel, my dear, you have been a very good girl to-day."

"Yeth'm, I couldn't help it," responded Ethel; "I've got a 'tiff neck.'"—Irish World.
